

24. 11.15 : 3rd day of the JCC.

The 3rd day began with the Network Producers in the Majestic hotel, a meeting which has gathered the professionals of the cinema (actors, directors, producers) to allow them to widen their relational networks.

The daily appointment of the press lunch was organized by the magazine The Maghreb, which presented the theme " The cinema and the human rights culture " which aroused the interest of several Tunisian and international journalists.

Interviews also took place in the Media Center (1 To 1), and gathered Tunisian and international journalists with Arabic television stars:
